Dedication

We, the members of the TOMAHAWK staff, are honored to dedicate this product of our year's endeavor to one who serves so quietly and efficiently that we often forget to say "thank you".

She is behind the scenes at the Halloween Carnival, Junior-Senior, and Homecoming activities. The success of these events is, in a large part, due to her effort. Not only does she spend countless hours working on major school projects such as these, but she mends our torn pants and fills our halls with the tempting odors of freshly cooked fudge.

In her classroom, she strives to teach each girl, not only the fundamentals of homemaking, but also how to be what she most surely is—a lady.

It is with sincere gratitude that we dedicate the 1970 TOMAHAWK to Mrs. Sally Williams, one who teaches us by her example.

Our Advertisers

Where do our thank-you's begin? They don't, for there is no beginning, just as there is no end. We could never say "Thank you" enough to all those people who helped publish the 1970 TOMAHAWK. Still, we must recognize in our own simple way, those who were instrumental in our publication. To all the businessmen of the community who expressed their confidence and interest in us by advertising in our yearbook and to all those who helped us increase our sales by purchasing a Tomahawk, our most sincere appreciation goes.

As well, to the faculty and administration, who put up with our absences from class to meet a deadline and our interruption of the daily schedule to take pictures, we want to express our thanks.

Last, but not least, we must thank our parents for our late late hours and neglect of household chores in favor of working on the Tomahawk.

A very special thanks to Mrs. Cecilia Mims, our advisor, who sacrificed many things and spent countless hours working with us.

Conclusion

PROFILES... A THEME, AN OUTLINE OF LIFE AT PACOLET HIGH... THE EXHILARATION OF ATHLETICS, THE CHALLENGE OF THE CLASS-ROOM, THE RESPONSIBILITY OF LEADERSHIP, THE JOY OF FRIENDSHIP—A WAY OF LIFE THAT IS ENDING FOR SOME, JUST BEGINNING FOR OTHERS... A JOB COMPLETED WITH THE HOPE THAT AT LEAST ONE PAGE WILL INTRIGUE YOU BECAUSE YOU WILL REMEMBER BEING INCLUDED.

THIS IS THE PLACE . . . THERE IS NOWHERE LIKE IT . . . MAKE IT WHAT YOU WILL . . . BUT KEEPIT-MOVING.
